Contents Volume 38

Vol. 38, No. 1

Thermal analysis of sodium azide
H. Nakamura, K. Sakumoto, Y. Hara (Kitakyushu-Shi, Japan) and K. Ochi (Aichi-Ken, Japan) 1

An enhanced adiabatic calorimeter for thermal hazard analysis
M.-H. Yue (Rahway, NJ, USA) 13

Maximum leakage times through puncture holes for process vessels of various shapes
K.S. Lee and J.T. Sommerfeld (Atlanta, GA, USA) 27

Simultation of vapor emissions from liquid spills
T.A. Cavanaugh II, J.H. Siegell and K.W. Steinberg (Florham Park, NJ, USA) 41

A long-term leachability study of solidified wastes by the multiple toxicity characteristic leaching procedure
C.-H. Lee, H.-C. Wang, C.-M. Lin (Hsinchu, Taiwan, ROC) and G.C.C. Yang (Kaohsiung, Taiwan, ROC) 65

Accidental initiation of condensed phase explosives during road and rail transport
P.A. Davies (Cheshire, UK) 75

Scaled model studies of petroleum contaminant removal from soils using surfactant solutions
N.S. Sundaram and M.R. Islam (Rapid City, SD, USA) 89

Adsorption of hydrocarbons by clay minerals from gasoline
Y. Li and G. Gupta (Princess Anne, MD, USA) 105

Sorption of benzene, toluene, ethylbenzene and xylenes to various media
R.G. Zytner (Guelph, Ontario, Canada) 113

Removal of hazardous oily waste from a soil matrix using surfactants and colloidal gas aphron suspensions under different flow conditions
D. Roy, K.T. Valsaraj, W.D. Constant and M. Darji (Baton Rouge, LA, USA) 127

Washing studies for PCP and creosote-contaminated soil
R.J. Tobia, J.M. Camacho, P. Augustin, R.A. Griffiths and R.M. Frederick (Edison, NJ, USA) 145

Dispersive–convective characteristics in the biorestoration of contaminated soil with a heterogeneous formation
X. Yang, L.E. Erickson and L.T. Fan (Manhattan, KS, USA) 163

Optimal design of multicomponent VOC condensation systems
R.F. Dunn and M.M. El-Halwagi (Auburn, AL, USA) 187

Testing of a waste generation prediction model in the paint and lacquer industry
R. Olbina (Cincinnati, OH, USA) and M. Hafner (Medvode, Slovenia) 207

Letter to the Editor
Risk Prevention Officer for Europe
N. Müller (Duisberg, Germany) 217

Vol. 38, No. 2

An assessment of chemical compatibility of bromobutyl rubber, chlorosulfonated polyethylene and epichlorohydrin membranes in the presence of some hazardous organic liquids
T.M. Aminabhavi and R.S. Munnolli (Dharwad, India) 223

Air change rates in stationary and moving motor vehicles
B. Fletcher and C.J. Saunders (Sheffield, UK) 243

Sneak analysis of batch processes
C. Whetton (Sheffield, UK) and W. Armstrong (Camberley, Surrey, UK) 257

Effect of hydrogen pressure on detoxification of 1,2,3-trichlorobenzene by catalytic hydrodechlorination with both unsulphided and sulphided Ni-Mo/γ-Al_2O_3 catalyst
F. Gioia, E.J. Gallagher and V. Famiglietti (Napoli, Italy) 277

A model for mass and heat transfer in an aerosol cloud
J. Nikmo, J. Kukkonen, T. Vesala and M. Kulmala (Helsinki, Finland) 293

Indoor deposition reducing the effect of toxic gas clouds in ordinary buildings
E. Karlsson (Umeå, Sweden) 313

Book Reviews 328
Announcements 349

Vol. 38, No. 3

Special Issue: Adsorption of priority pollutants at the solid–liquid interface

Preface 351

Stochastic modeling of adsorption in a batch system
B.C. Shen, L.T. Fan (Manhattan, KS, USA) and W.Y. Chen (University, MS, USA) 353

Effect of molecular oxygen on adsorptive capacity and extraction efficiency of granulated activated carbon for three ortho-substituted phenols
R.D. Vidic, M.T. Suidan, G.A. Sorial and R.C. Brenner (Cincinnati, OH, USA) 373

Adsorption of biologically inhibitory compounds as a process control mechanism in biological reactors
P. Fox (Tempe, AZ, USA) and M.T. Suidan (Cincinnati, OH, USA) 389

Sorption processes of 2,3,7,8-tetrachlorodibenzo-p-dioxin on soil in the presence of organic liquids
E.J. Dougherty, A.L. McPeters, M.R. Overcash and R.G. Carbonell (Raleigh, NC, USA) 405

Adsorption of phenols onto hydrous ZnS(s): effect of cosolvent and temperature
J.C. Liu and C.P. Huang (Newark, DE, USA) 423

Adsorption kinetics of cadmium chelates on activated carbon
C. Chang and Y. Ku (Taipei, Taiwan) 439
